Bec is a critical-thinking graphic artist with a diverse range of design capabilities, specialising in Graphic Design, User Experience (UX), Brand Identity, and Spatial Design.

With a double major in Games and Interactive Design and Visual and Spatial Design, Bec has excelled academically, earning multiple commendations and proudly representing Australia in the 2023 Tokyo Global Leadership Program.

In October 2023, while nearing the completion of her degree, Bec accepted a full-time corporate position as Graphic Designer at Hall & Prior Aged Care Group. In this role, she designed corporate and internal marketing materials, provided strategic recommendations on website and digital communications, and supported both internal and external stakeholders.

By embracing a human-centered approach and valuing collaborative feedback, she implemented efficient design processes that enhanced workflow and improved the user experience across organisational touch points.

Graduating in 2025 with a Bachelor of Design from Edith Cowan University's School of Arts and Humanities, Bec combines academic rigor with real-world experience to apply multidisciplinary design principles and problem-solving strategies rooted in accountability and transparency.

With over 25 years of experience as a design practitioner, Bec understands the power of clear visual and verbal communication in building human-to-human connections that foster trust and strengthen business relationships. She champions internationalisation, inclusivity, diversity, and collaboration as essential drivers of innovation in an increasingly interconnected global community.

Dear Rebecca Plumley,

Thank you for your participation in the Tokyo City University Australia Program (TAP) as a Buddy Ambassador in semester 2, 2023. The success of this program reflects the dedication and enthusiasm of volunteers such as yourself, who donate their time to support TAP students.

As a volunteer, you were reliable and committed, enabling us to safely host a large number of students for activities both on and off campus; this was no small feat.

Volunteering with TAP has also given you cross-cultural working experiences, involving teamwork with people whose first language is not English. It is not always easy for these students to settle into their new international environment. You should be proud of your ability to communicate well and show them their valued place in our ECU community.

On behalf of ECU, I would like to thank you for your contribution to this program. I hope that you have found it a valuable and enjoyable element of your time at ECU, and I wish you every success with your future studies and career.

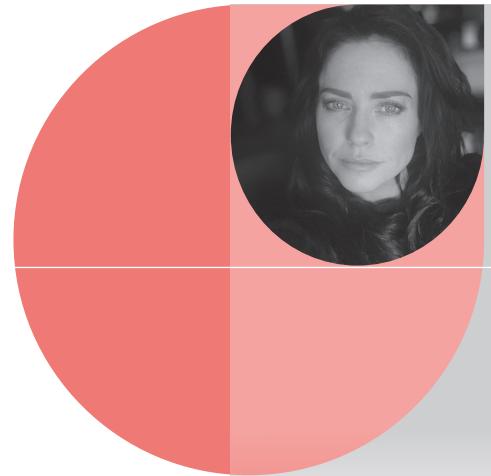

Yours sincerely,

Professor Steve Chapman
Vice-Chancellor and President

Dear Rebecca,

Student Number: 10542581

On behalf of the School of Arts & Humanities, I write to congratulate you on achieving outstanding results in the following unit/s:

TDD2214 Narrative Design
GDI2100 Web Design
GDI3100 Interactive Media

You have worked very hard and successfully to achieve this outstanding result from your studies with us. Your personal achievement is richly deserved and one of which you should be proud. You should draw on this success for inspiration in coming semesters.

Your commitment is deeply appreciated by the academics who teach you: it is also a reward for their work. On their behalf, I thank you for the dedication you have shown.

I wish you all the best for your future studies and I know that, regardless of the marks you achieve, you will be an outstanding graduate one day, confident of your abilities and proud to have done so well at ECU.

Congratulations once again on your tremendous academic achievement.

Yours sincerely
